President’s Letter
By Dan Smith

The S.A.B.D. board is off to a great start this year and we would like to take this opportunity to encourage those reading this to participate. Our committees are forming and the various chairs are actively seeking members to join. Nick Fediay is chairing the Economic Restructuring Committee, the Safety Committee is being led by Casey Cowles, and Al Switzer is chairing the Promotion Committee. Please reach out and contact these chairs to take part in the fun, productive, and impactful opportunities that these various committees afford.

When we talk about fighting graffiti, repainting crosswalks, adding new banners, cleaning tree-wells, and installing gateway pieces, the heavy lifting is accomplished through our committees. Participating at that level, is a great way to make a positive and lasting impact within our district.

I’m also pleased to announce that Angie Lokotz is now serving as our new District Manager. And while the board is excited to see her fill that opening, it does leave a vacancy in our Secretary position on the board. If you or someone you know might be interested in the Secretary position, please have them contact me.

Have a prosperous year!

Dan Smith
President

February 6 on 6 Social Saturday

The February 6 on 6 Social will be at Tacoma Frame Makers, 3011 6th Ave, from 6 to 8 pm this Saturday. Stop in any time and introduce yourself to the new owner Stacia Harvey.

Stacia is busy remodeling the store, but she’s open for business, and up for hosting a gathering as well. Learn about the services she can offer for your store and your home.

Light refreshments will be served

Some business owners have said they can't get off until 7. Don't fret about the time; stop in whenever it's convenient. See you there!

If you'd like to host a Social, please let me know!

--Angie Lokotz

Santa Parade Thanks

Board Member and resident Santa, Al Switzer, is still receiving thank you’s from parade participants. Here are some excerpts:

From the Mariners Grounds Crew:

Monday, December 7, 2015

Thanks for yesterday. We all very much enjoyed it. I would like to work with you on this next year! Thank you my friend

Text message 7:11 PM

From the Fish Food Bank:

... I have to say a huge THANK YOU for including us in the Santa Parade! Everyone LOVED participating. And I’m so glad the turnout was so great, even though the weather wasn’t perfect. Hooray!

We were able to gather 3 good-sized boxes of food donations, and around $20 cash too. It’s actually far better than I anticipated for our first year! Next time, as we create a fun tradition, people will be more aware, and I know donations will increase.

T-Shirt Bags a Success

Mandelin’s | Tacoma Food Co-op | Ubi’s
Jan 23 & 24, 2016

Three 6th Ave businesses participated in the “Plastic Ain’t Tacoma’s Bag” World Record attempt for “Most reusable bags made from t-shirts.” Mandelin’s consignment shop, Tacoma Food Co-op, and Ubiquitous Journey had tables set up, piles of T-shirts, scissors, instruction cards, and--best of all--many people who turned out to make their own bags.

Social media helped spread the word, and the hashtag #ditchtheplastic accompanied many photos, tweets, and Facebook posts. 6th Ave businesses were not alone in the effort; many other small businesses and libraries in Tacoma also participated. It was a great effort for a good cause.

Events such as these—a great way to celebrate the environment--attract many people who may not usually come out to the Avenue. Many businesses took advantage of the event to bring in new customers. Some, like Ubi’s, offered free coffee to participants. Some offered discounts. A plastic bag monster was spied walking around 6th Avenue to help spread the word. Everyone was happy with the turnout. At the time of this printing, it looks like the record has been reached.

- Child Luring Attempt at 6th & Fife (child got away)
- Half Pint Pizza, Fight & Broken Window
- Jazzbones, Assault, Stolen Wallet
- Taco Time, Robbery with gun
- Graffiti at S. Bjornson Ins. (on top of Old Milw. Cafe) 7-11, Assault

Introduce Council Members
Keith Blocker (Position 3, 1st term, represents the area South of 6th Ave, (253) 591-5470), Anders Ibsen (Position 1, 2nd term, (253) 591-5470), Robert Thoms (Position 2, area North of 6th Ave, (253) 594-7848)

Busy year this year. Some larger issues facing City Council: Click Cable, Methanol Plant at the Port, Marijuana Moratorium Review, proposed plastic bag ban, Sick Leave and Minimum Wage.

Thoms advised the Board to be mindful of City monies in regard to business district challenges like potholes, crosswalks, etc.

Tacoma Economic Development | Carol Wolfe:
Advised the Board that this is the year for budget ask; get our work plan together as far as infrastructure and put a marketing plan together for events; put the $ ask in there; also apply for funds early

Upcoming Events:
- Sister Cities International Film Festival, UPS
- MLK Day of Service

Drawing for Complimentary Breakfast at Next SABD Meeting:
Congratulations Winners: Sojourner Duxbury and Michael Johnson

Member Announcements:
- Tom Johnson of Northwest Costume: Gray Lumber can help businesses with Graffiti removal
- Stacy Carkonen of Tacoma Farmers Market: Sales were down at 6th Ave Market (could be due to many factors: hot summer, less early produce, street was sealed and sticky all summer long due to heat). This year they will remain on Tuesday, have a June start and end at the end of August. Need to bolster attendance, help spread the word. The market got their funding for banners and wants to hang them.
- Casey Cowles of Minute Man on 38th: Safety is always an issue. If you see something, say something.

All committees need volunteers. Contact the Chairs if you’d like to help.
Safety, Casey Cowles, chair.
Organization, Angie Lokotz, chair.
Economic Restructuring, Dan Smith, chair.
Promotions, Al Switzer, chair.

Adjourn 8:30 am.

Respectfully submitted
Angie Lokotz

Info Bits

Some of you may be members of Nextdoor.com or use the Nextdoor App to learn about or communi- cate information about your neighborhoods. Nextdoor users report everything from lost dogs to garage sales to mail theft and vandalism. To find out more, go to Nextdoor.com and search for your neigh- borhood. Ask to join. It’s easy.

Here are some items of interest I picked up re- cently from my neighborhood Nextdoor.com:

A City Council member urged everyone to report non-emergencies even if you think they are inconse- quential or have little likelihood of being solved (for instance: trespassing—even though the guy is gone, car vandalism, etc.). The Police Non-Emergency number is: (253) 798-4721. Or make a report online athttps://tacomasafe.org/. Reporting helps the police keep tabs on all crimes and helps them allocate re- sources to the various neighborhoods.

A member reported that their vehicle license plates were exchanged; replaced by two different plates. If you are like me and don’t even know your plate number, you may not notice this for a long time. In the meantime, your plates may be gathering toll charges on the highway or be involved in a crime spree.
